UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

9 || JOHN EARL WARD,

Petitioner,

11 | VS.

12 | MICHAEL BUDGE, et al.,

13 || Respondents.

Case No. 03:04-CV-00288-LRH (RAM)

ORDER

The Court found that several grounds of the Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus (#6) were unexhausted. Order #18. Petitioner, John Earl Ward, responded (#21) that he wanted to dismiss the Petition (#6) and return to state court to exhaust those grounds. The Court granted his request and dismissed the action. Order #22. Ward now asks the Court not to dismiss the action but to stay it while he exhausts his grounds in state court. Letter #24. He does not show that good cause exists to stay this action. See Rhines v. Weber, ___ U.S. ___, 125 S. Ct. 1528, 1534-35 (2005). Ward simultaneously declares that he wishes to abandon the unexhausted grounds and proceed in this Court with the exhausted grounds. Declaration #25. These options are mutually exclusive; Ward must choose one.
